

China Wedding Details

Thank you for looking into coming to our wedding in Beijing China!

We have gathered some helpful information to assist you in the process of traveling to China!

China Wedding Details

Traveling to Beijing, China for the Wedding:

China entry rules can vary by nationality, so non-U.S. passport holders should check their own requirements as early as possible. U.S. travelers need a passport valid for at least 6 months beyond arrival and at least 2 blank pages.

Steps:

Check your passport:

Make sure your passport will be valid for at least 6 months after your arrival date in China and has at least 2 blank pages. If it does not, renew it before doing anything else.

Confirm whether you need a visa:

Guests traveling on a U.S. passport should plan to get a visa before the trip. China currently offers visa-free entry for citizens of certain countries for up to 30 days, including Canada and the UK, but not for U.S. passport holders

China Wedding Details

Book Your Flight:

We will be arriving about a week before the wedding date. The wedding date is May 30th 2027 at Four Seasons Beijing, China. We will be leaving June 3rd 2027 out of PEK, but we encourage you to explore China for longer!

Book Hotel:

We are delighted to announce that the ceremony will be held at the Four Seasons hotel (48 Liangmaqiao Rd, Chaoyang, Beijing, China, 100125), where we have secured accommodations from May 29th to May 30th for those attending the event. If you would like to extend your stay for additional nights, please email Eva Shi at eva.shi@fourseasons.com along with the form on the next page. Should you wish to explore other parts of Beijing we will update our page with hotel and other recommendations.

China arrival Card before you land:

You can also fill it out upon arrival at a kiosk.

Extras to know

- Download WeChat (It's an all-in-one app for secure payments, ordering taxis (DiDi), messaging people, etc.).
- Download offline versions of your translate app - many people do not speak english
- keep your passport on you at all times!
- download an eSim before you go and set it up so it starts when you land.
 - we recommend Gigsky or AirAlo (VISA infinite credit cards get 3GB Gigsky for free)
 - we also recommend downloading a VPN that bypasses the firewall (We use NordVPN)
- We highly recommend taking high speed rail to explore other parts of China
- There are tons of super nice hotels in China that are quite affordable.
- if you have ANY questions don't hesitate to reach out to us!
